Mrs. von Buchau,

Hello again. Please let me know if you purchased any PG&E shares between April 29, 2015 and November 15, 2018.

From your below email, it appears that your husband's grandparents purchased the shares sometime before your wedding in 1992. Please confirm.

Thanks,
Jack

Mrs. von Buchau,

I'm not sure I can help you get information from Wells Fargo. But please let me know if you purchased any PG&E shares between April 29, 2015 and November 15, 2018.

Thanks,
Jack

Jack,

Thanks for getting back to me. Yes, I need more time to research the Wells Fargo information - what did Wells do with our shares???

Thanks,

Rose

Mrs. von Buchau,

Thank you for your email. Can you help me understand why my conclusion is in error?

I'm happy to answer any questions you have.

Attached is Claim No. 105784, which you filed against PG&E and is subject to the Reorganized Debtors' Eighth Securities Claims Omnibus Objection (No Basis for Claim – Failure to Provide Any Trading Information) [Dkt. No. 10922] (the “Objection”). As you can see, the proof of claim does not contain any trading data.

> If you look on p. 1 of the attached proof of claim, it states that the form is for purchasers of PG&E securities “during the period from April 29, 2015 through November 15, 2018.” Based on your email, it appears that your husband's grandparents purchased the shares sometime before your wedding in 1992. Therefore, it appears this claim form does not apply to you and you do not have a rescission or damage claim against PG&E.

This is not correct - this is INCORRECT - the basis for the objection is stated as "Failure to Provide Any Trading Information"???

They are both deceased and have been deceased for over 10 years. When they deeded the shares to us, they explained that the "trading information" was lost/destroyed when they moved to Montague, CA, from LochLomond Harbor in San Rafael, many years ago!
